MARTY BAAS #10621

Blessed with good health, clear vision, and abundant energy, Marty Baas finds joy in her work at Reneuvo School in Ciudad Victoria, Mexico. After growing up in Christian schools and teaching in several Christian schools as an adult, she is delighted to see her life "coming full circle" in her pre-retirement years.

As coordinator of English, Marty equips less-experienced faculty members to teach and manage classrooms with excellence. Since most lack formal training in how to teach, she invests many hours each week in developing their skills and overseeing their work, as well as teaching an upper-level class.

More importantly, Marty has introduced Bible as a subject in all grades, 1-9, and supervises the work of those teachers, as well. The school, founded in 1991 by Presbyterians, has grown tremendously in recent years. Marty requests prayer that the children's hearts would be sensitive to the gospel and that she would have a part in seeing the next generation equipped to impact Cd. Victoria in Northern Mexico for Christ.

As a long-distance mother of three and grandmother of seven, Marty loves the promise of Psalm 121:8, "The Lord will watch over your coming and going, both now and forevermore."
