Paul & Kim Barton #10737

The Barton family has been serving as MTW medical missionaries in Shell, Ecuador since 2007. Paul practices as an anesthesiologist at Hospital Vozandes del Oriente and Kim as the pediatrician at Casa de Fe orphanage. Shell is located at the edge of the Amazon jungle and is most widely known for the events told in the movie "The End of the Spear." After language school and serving for three years in Shell, the Bartons were approved as long-term missionaries with MTW and began preparations for their return to Shell in the summer of 2012.

In addition to their doctoring roles, Paul serves as medical equipment technician at the hospital, and Paul and Kim have hosted several short-term teams and individuals. The Bartons also keep busy with their four boys, the last of whom was born in Shell. They attend Nate Saint Memorial School, a K-8 school for missionary children, and thrive on jungle life. Please pray that Paul and Kim's medical ministry would strengthen the local body of Christ and point to Him alone. Matt 10:7-8.
