Dave & Barb Bindewald #10511

Dave and Barb were in their 30s when they and their two elementary-aged children David and Erin set out for Japan as church planters in 1988. They started a church and served there for 10 years. After returning to the States, Dave became associate pastor at Lexington Presbyterian Church (PCA), where they have served for almost 15 years. The Bindewalds have ministered to the family of God there through preaching, teaching, counseling, loving, and pointing the people to the gospel of Jesus Christ!

So now, almost 25 years since they first set out for Japan, the church they started in Tokyo has celebrated its 20th Anniversary, the kids are grown and in ministry, and Dave and Barb are called Baba and Nana by their three granddaughters!

Dave and Barb will be returning to join the exciting work that God is doing in Chiba, Tokyo, Nagoya, and the devastated area of northern Japan. They are already familiar with the people, culture, and language, and are happy that God is calling them back to finish out their active years of serving the Lord in their second home of Japan.
