Rosemary Bolton #10515

Rosemary has been working in Indonesia since 1985, the last few years under the sponsorship of one of the largest church denominations in Maluku. She and her Nuauulu co-worker, Huna, are currently focusing on activities to encourage the Nuauulu people to use the books of Scripture that have been translated to date. These include Genesis, Mark, Acts, 1-2 Thessalonians, 1-2 Timothy, and Titus. Rosemary and Huna have received training under OneStory, a ministry that has helped prepare them to facilitate the crafting of oral Bible stories since the Nuauulu are an oral culture. Huna is facilitating the crafting of these stories and Rosemary is being trained as a consultant, checking them for accuracy. The Bible stories will then be used in storying fellowship groups. Rosemary and Huna are also preparing Bible story videos, some of which are short and designed for viewing on cell phones, which are very popular with young people. They are also experimenting with Bible stories put to traditional Nuauulu music. Please pray that these activities would draw many Nuauulu people, the majority of whom still follow their traditional religion, to Christ as well as result in spiritual growth. Pray also that more Nuauulu people would help with this work.
