TONY AND TRACY BOYD #010560

Tony and Tracy Boyd grew up in Christian homes where both sensed a leading into missions at a young age. Tony attended Samford University and was discipled in campus ministry while Tracy attended Wheaton College, studying anthropology and community development. Both attended Wheaton College Graduate School and received their MA's in missions and intercultural studies.

Tony and Tracy have ministered in numerous countries around the world. As a result, their hearts are burdened for unreached people as well as equipping national Christians with resources for church planting and cross-cultural missions. Most recently the Boyds served on a church-planting team in South Asia. In October 2005, their daughter Kathryn was born.

Through God's leading, the Boyds are joining MTW's new church-planting work in Brisbane, Australia. Despite Australia's negative evangelical growth, God is drawing people to Himself and giving Australian believers a desire to reach the many nations surrounding them—both locally and globally.

Australia's location in Southeast Asia makes it missiologically strategic for church-planting movements in the 21st century. In Brisbane, the Boyds will focus on church planting, ministering to the vast non-English speaking population—particularly Asians, and equipping Australian believers for cross-cultural ministry in Australia and beyond.
