JANE BRINKERHOFF

By God's grace Jane was born into a Christian home, through which she came to know Christ at an early age.

After graduating from Wheaton College she taught in a Christian high school established by West End PCA in Hopewell, Virginia.

It was during MTW's 1983 summer missions program in Asia that the Lord called Jane to be a missionary. In 1985 she joined a church-planting team targeting Nagoya, Japan, where she has been involved in the evangelism and discipleship processes of starting new churches. Most of her work involves leading evangelistic Bible studies and discipling those who come to Christ.

She would appreciate prayer for:

1. Many truly hungering for the Truth to be led to these Bible studies

2. Abundant fruit produced in those hearing the Word
3. More churches to start as a result; knowing when and where
4. Wisdom in helping the Japanese themselves to begin outreach Bible studies
5. More committed male leadership in the church
6. Patience in awaiting the harvest; a love for the Lord that's contagious
