ANDREW AND BECKY BRONSON #10731

The path leading the Bronsons to service in Bangkok, Thailand, is a testament to God's grace in their lives. After graduating from Vanderbilt University, Andrew and Becky began careers in real estate and advertising respectively. They married in 2005 and spent two years with MTW in Bangkok—a time that shaped their sense of His calling. They returned to the States to obtain degrees from Covenant Seminary in preparation for long-term ministry in Thailand.

Bangkok is a metropolis of 14 million—a melting pot of cultures and religious traditions. The city is torn between rapid urbanization, a growing middle class, and Western influence on one hand, and distinctives of ancient Thai culture and centuries of Buddhist practice on the other. For all of its glory, the city remains plagued with corruption, sexual oppression, and poverty, rooted in the suppression of the truth of the gospel. Six of every 10 Thais have literally never heard of Jesus; nine of every 10 don't believe God exists.

Yet in this darkness God's grace shines! Becky and Andrew will join a church-planting network in Bangkok that has been growing since 2000. They ask your prayers for the Thai Church and their ministry there.
