JOHN AND SUE BURCH #10530

John and Sue Burch joined MTW in 1989, serving in Brisbane, Australia, until 2004 and as part of the Spiritual Life Department team since then. In 2008, they moved to San Juan, Puerto Rico, where they spent two and a half years leading a cross-cultural training program.

The Burches' passion is to help prepare missionaries for life overseas and to care for them once on the field. They do this as mentors for the Living in Grace ministry and the Cross Cultural Ministry Internship program, and by providing pastoral care for MTW missionaries in East Asia, where they visit and minister regularly.

John and Sue have also taken on the role of mentoring program coordinators through MTW's Global Training and Development team, where they are responsible to shepherd and administer in the Missionary Mentoring Program of MTW. In this role the Burches seek to inform, equip, and encourage healthy mentoring relationships on the field.
