JAMIE AND JENNIFER BURKEMPER #10706

High school sweethearts who grew up outside of St. Louis, Mo., Jamie and Jennifer trusted Christ at an early age and grew in their faith through Bible studies in high school. Shortly after marrying and moving to South Carolina, they sensed God leading them into missions. Jamie and Jennifer have always had a love for children, working with them in local youth sports programs and through their church, where Jamie also served as a deacon. Jennifer taught Sunday school and was a houseparent for an abused children's home. God used these experiences to prepare their hearts for His work.

In 2004 the Lord confirmed a call to Acapulco, Mexico. The Burkempers served two years working with street children. Their children, John and Jossi, ministered alongside them. As their time ended there, God convinced them to utilize their experiences from church ministries in the U.S. and time in Mexico to return to Mexico for long-term ministry.

God opened the door for them to serve with MTW Border Evangelism and Mercy Ministries (BEAMM) as mercy ministry coordinators in the Juarez/El Paso area. Their goal is to support the local churches, teaching them how to develop mercy ministries that will expand God's kingdom throughout the community.
