Adam & Michelle Cain #11369

Adam and Michelle Cain are called to serve the people of Honduras. Both of them grew up participating in missions trips through their respective churches and both developed hearts for the poor and the lost. In 2007, they took their first missions trip together to Uganda. While there, the Lord placed a desire in their hearts to serve orphans in cross-cultural mission work.

In 2011, while on a trip to La Ceiba, Honduras, the Cains were struck by the vast number of orphans, broken families, and deep need of the transforming power of the gospel. They long to minister to these youth and their families and point them to Christ. The Cains foresee this passion unfolding in the form of relationship building, discipleship, and evangelism within an impoverished community in La Ceiba, Honduras. Adam and Michelle will join a team that serves the Lord through church planting, pastoral training, medical ministry, mercy ministry, and ministering to single mothers and street children.
