GLENN AND FRANCES CAMENISCH #11102

Glenn and Frances have served with MTW in Lisbon since 1979. They are from Kentucky and Tennessee respectively, but were raised in Brazil, where their parents were missionaries. At a young age, the Lord brought them to faith in Jesus. Although they grew up together, they re-met after college and married in 1973.

While attending King College, where Glenn received his B.A. in psychology, he felt a call to the ministry. He then continued training at Reformed Theological Seminary. Frances graduated from Belhaven College where she was a Bible major.

Upon graduation from seminary in 1976, the Camenisches served the Collinsville Presbyterian Chapel of First Church in Gadsden, Ala. But having felt called to missions during seminary, they began preparations to go with MTW's Brazil team to Rio. However, the Lord closed that door and led them to Europe.

In Portugal a small Presbyterian denomination founded on the inerrancy of Scripture has since been established. Glenn and Frances work with a church in this denomination through pastoring, preaching, teaching, music, outreach, and counseling.

The Camenisches have three grown children: Joel, Andrew, and Sara.
