DAMON AND YOUNG-MI CHA #11334

Damon and Young-Mi first became interested in missions when they served long-term in East Asia. This was a pivotal experience which not only instilled in them the importance of missions work but also strengthened their desire to be missionaries. After marrying in 2003, they together discerned a call for overseas missions.

Damon and Young-Mi began serving at New Life Mission Church in Fullerton, Calif., in 2005, and Damon began to pursue further education in preparation for long-term ministry. In 2007, Damon was ordained as a teaching elder in the PCA after graduating with an M.Div. from Westminster Seminary California. Young-Mi served in the women's ministry at the church and has worked as an editor and webmaster.

Upon completion of a Ph.D. in Old Testament at Fuller Theological Seminary, Damon will focus on providing theological education for pastors and leaders in Cambodia and throughout Southeast Asia. Young-Mi has a heart for women's ministry and hopes to utilize her training in New Testament for women's discipleship and teaching. Together they desire to serve in Cambodia by helping build strong, gospel-centered churches to nurture and equip the upcoming generations for Christ.
