Carl & Becky Chaplin #11111

Becky has known Christ as her Savior since childhood and Carl was a chemist when he accepted Christ. The Chaplins married in 1978, and Carl went on to Reformed Theological Seminary, graduating in 1982. He then served as pastor of Grace PCA in Jackson, Tenn. The Chaplins began their ministry with MTW in 1989 and served for 14 years with the Reformed Church of the Czech Republic before transitioning to their present ministry.

Since 2008, Carl and Becky Chaplin have been serving on MTW's Latvia-Lithuania team, working alongside the Reformed churches in those countries and the Baltic Reformed Theological Seminary. Many Latvians or Lithuanians will say they believe in God, but do not know who Jesus Christ is or much about the Bible. Many are members of a Lutheran, Roman Catholic, or Russian Orthodox Church. The Chaplins serve with Latvians and Lithuanians in ministries including marriage and parenting seminars, and Bible studies for teenagers, young adults, men, and women. They also sponsor the translation of books and articles into Latvian and Lithuanian for a website they host. Their blog site with ministry updates is: latviachaplins.blogspot.com.
