BEN & KIM CHURCH #11345

Ben and Kim have sensed God's call to ministry since they were first married. After graduating from Truman State University in 2008, they moved to St. Louis for Ben to attend Covenant Seminary while Kim worked as a pediatric nurse. During this time they became involved in inner-city ministry with refugees and those living in poverty. Ben coordinated an after-school tutoring program for at-risk teens and helped lead cross-cultural ministry teams. These experiences confirmed the Lord's calling on their lives to work in cross-cultural ministry.

Ben and Kim are joining MTW's team in Kampala, Uganda, which works to equip pastors, church planters, and other Christian workers at Westminster Theological College and Seminary. Ben and Kim plan to work under the guidance of a Ugandan pastor in the Presbyterian Church in Uganda to expand the team's ministry into the much-needed areas of justice and mercy. The physical and emotional needs of the community include those of the fast-growing orphan population (estimated 2.5 million in 2010) and those living with HIV/AIDS. They plan to use Ben's M. Div. degree and Kim's nursing skills to work alongside local churches to bring the gospel of God's kingdom to the community in word and deed.
