JOHN AND KATHY CLOW #11197

John grew up in Clute, Texas and felt God's call to missions while attending LeTourneau University in Longview, Texas. In 1992, John graduated with a degree in welding engineering technology. In 1997 he met and married Kathy who grew up in Lawrenceville, Ga. Kathy also felt God's call to missions during college. She graduated from North Georgia College in Dahlonega, Ga. with a degree in special education.

The Clows have been serving with MTW since 2002. Their first term was spent working alongside Isaiah 55 Deaf Ministries in Reynosa, Mexico, where they hosted short-term volunteers. God used this time to train and prepare them for what lay ahead.

In 2009, the Clows joined the church-planting team in La Ceiba, Honduras. In addition to planting churches, the team also focuses on developing relationships and meeting the physical needs of the people via mercy ministries such as medical clinics, kids' clubs, and ESL classes. John's main role is coordinating the construction of building projects. Together they help host the short-term volunteers, as well as support the church plant and other projects. John and Kathy are excited and expectant about serving in Honduras. For updates on the Clows, visit their blog at: www.theclowcommunicator.blogspot.com.
