Donald & Claire-Lise Cobb #11133

Donald grew up in Massachusetts and professed faith as a child. In 1984 he left for France, working in missions with Arab World Ministries, then studying theology at the Faculté libre de théologie réformée (now l'Institut Jean Calvin), in Aix-en-Provence. Claire-Lise is from Switzerland and came to Christ at an early age. They were married in 1992. After seminary, Donald taught at a Bible college in Switzerland then, after moving to Florida, became a teaching elder in the PCA.

The Cobbs have been with Mission to the World since 1996, serving first in the Middle East with an indigenous

Presbyterian church. Donald's focus there was on pastoral training and church planting. They then returned to France, joining a church-planting team in Bordeaux, France, led by a national pastor. In 2004, Donald was asked to teach church planting and New Testament at the seminary in Aix-en-Provence, today one of the few evangelical seminaries in Western Europe. His burden is to instill in his students a vision for church planting and a desire to see God's kingdom moving forward in Europe. Donald and Claire-Lise are actively involved in a local church, working with a French pastor.
