BRADLEY AND SARA CORDELL #11164

Bradley's experience with missions began during his college years at Auburn University when he spent three summers with MTW in Odessa, Ukraine ('99-'01). The experience changed his life, worldview, outlook on the global Church, and his view of God's kingdom. Since that time Bradley has routinely considered whether God might be calling him to further pursue missions.

Sara's journey in missions began in 1993 with a short-term trip to Mexico. While a student at Auburn University she also went to Romania to do mercy ministry, working primarily with orphans. God's work in Romania drew Sara back on five additional trips.

In 2007, Bradley and Sara began life as a married couple in Birmingham, AL. After a trip in 2010 to Lviv, Ukraine, they were convinced of God's calling to join the Lviv church-planting team. Some of Bradley's major roles on the team include discipleship and training of young Ukrainian men, developing MTW internships for college Americans and Ukrainians, and team administration. In addition to caring for her family as a wife and mother, Sara seeks to develop relationships with other women, participate in kid's clubs, and develop mercy ministries to orphans.
