CRAIG AND REE COULBOURNE #11122

During a trip to Japan in the summer of 1987, Craig and Ree first saw the great need for the gospel to be preached in that land, where less than one half of one percent are evangelical Christians. In 1994, they returned to Japan and have been serving there with Mission to the World since that time.

Craig grew up in Maryland and became a Christian during high school. After college, he taught high school math and computer science for seven years, then worked as a computer programmer for five years. Ree was born in Delaware, grew up in Maryland, and became a Christian during college. She has a bachelor's degree in Russian and a master's degree in Teaching English as a Second Language.

From 1996 to 2008, Craig and Ree worked together with a Japanese pastor to plant Kaihin Makuhari Grace Church in Chiba City. With that church plant now healthy and growing, the Coulbournes are planning to begin work on a new church plant in another city. There they will reach out to the people using a variety of evangelistic events and Bible studies. As God brings people to faith, Craig and Ree will disciple the new believers and equip and train leaders.
