Scott & Kathy Craig #11130

Since 2002 Scott and Kathy have been serving with Mission to the World in Mexico, first on the boarder with MTW's BEAMM team in Ciudad Juarez and more recently with MTW's Northern Mexico church-planting team in Monterrey. In both locations the Craigs assisted the national church planters in coordinating the short-term teams. The teams often deeply impact the communities where churches are being planted, opening doors to share the gospel!

In 2009, MTW entered a partnership with a Costa Rican church, ICRICEN, in order to participate and empower them in their vision for a Reformed church-planting movement in Costa Rica and throughout Central America. ICRICEN, located in San Jose, has two existing church plants as well as a ministry in church revitalization. Ongoing mentoring and discipleship groups train leaders and future pastors for the growing needs of this church-planting movement.

The Craigs will be assisting these national church planters in how best to use the skills and talents the short-term teams bring to help grow and strengthen their church plants. Please consider joining them in bringing the gospel of grace through the teachings of the Reformed faith to Costa Rica.
