RICHARD AND ROBYN CRANE #11125

Richard was born in Chile, and attended Chilean schools through the eighth grade, completing high school in North Carolina. With a B.A. from Covenant College and an M.Div. from Covenant Seminary, Richard has also studied at Westminster Seminary and has Chilean certification in systems family therapy. Robyn was born in Scranton, Pa., and studied at Penn State. She has a B.A. and certification in education from Covenant College, and studied at Covenant Seminary. The Cranes have two married daughters, Janette and Susana.

From 1979 to 1991, the Cranes worked with the National Presbyterian Church in Chile, helping to plant the Gracia y Paz church. In 1991 Richard founded a Christian counseling and training center (PEPP), where Robyn completed her training. Their ministries and "therapy evangelism" brought couples to Christ and into the Cristo Rey church where Richard was a pastor until 2002. In 2003 the Cranes moved to Miami where Richard is developing the pastoral psychology programs for FLET (Latin American Faculty of Theological Education) and for MINTS (Miami International Seminary). They reach Hispanics all over the globe, conducting leadership training by extension using the Internet, printed material, and intensive courses overseas.
