RYAN AND KAREN CULBERTSON #11350

Ryan and Karen Culbertson met while serving with Young Life's ministry to high school students. They married in 2000 and have since lived in Ryan's hometown of Greenwood, S.C., where Ryan has worked for his family's printing company and Karen has worked as a pre-school teacher and homemaker.

Ryan began to feel a strong call to missions after an MTW summer missions trip to Reynosa, Mexico in 2009. During that trip, he helped with construction for Isaiah 55 Deaf Ministries, whose primary mission is providing schools for deaf children. Through much prayer both Karen and Ryan feel it is God's will that they return to Reynosa and serve there with MTW/BEAMM (Border Evangelism and Mercy Ministries) and Isaiah 55 Deaf Ministries. Drawing on his academic background in special education, Ryan will work with business owners and management, as well as the community at large to establish a vocational program for deaf students graduating from the Isaiah 55 School. In addition, Ryan will assist summer work teams and create a discipleship program for college interns. Karen's primary focus will be at home with their two children, Ellie and John Thomas, but will also offer a supporting role to the ministry.
