CHARLES AND BONITA DAVIDSON #11703

Charles grew up in a Christian home in Asheville, N.C. While a student at Clemson University, the Lord began to plant a desire in his heart for missionary service. Bonita grew up in LaGrange, Ga., also in a Christian home. While attending the dental school at the Medical College of Georgia (DMD, 1983), the Lord used the ministry of First Presbyterian Church of Augusta, Ga., to challenge Bonita with a call to world missions.

Charles and Bonita met in Columbia, S.C. and were married in 1984. In 1985 Charles received his M.Div. from Columbia Biblical Seminary. He was ordained by Westminster Presbytery in 1986, and served as the assistant pastor in a PCA church in Bristol, Tenn., before he and Bonita joined Mission to the World in 1989.

After serving with MTW in Lima, Peru from 1993 to 2008, the Davidsons have transitioned to the U.S./Mexico border with MTW-BEAMM (Border Evangelism and Mercy Ministries) in order to advance a church-planting movement by helping to train others to pastor and start new churches. As a BEAMM training coordinator, Charles has many responsibilities which include teaching at the San Pablo Seminary in Juarez, as well as mentoring Mexican pastors and students in the ministry of church planting.
