NANCY DEIBERT #11708

Nancy was born and raised in Ridley Park, PA. She graduated from The King's College in Briarcliff Manor with a BS in physical education. After teaching for 14 years at The Christian Academy in Media, PA, Nancy was challenged with a vision of teaching international children and sharing the gospel with them.

Nancy has served with Mission to the World in Europe as a missionary educator since 1988. She spent three years at Black Forest Academy in Germany as a teacher and a coach. Since 1992, Nancy has served at Vienna Christian School, where her role has changed over the years. Presently she is a teacher, coach, and heads up the alumni department.

Vienna Christian School is an international Christian school with a North American, English curriculum. The school has been in operation for 20 years and serves the missionary community, Christian business people, and the international community. Over the past 20 years, students from more than 60 nations have attended. The school's purpose is two-fold: to enable missionaries to stay on the field by providing an affordable Christian English education and presenting the gospel to international families, many of whom have never heard the gospel.
