CHARLES AND CAROL DEWITT #011715

Charles, raised in Nashville, TN, graduated from the University of the South and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School.

Carol, from Montgomery, AL, graduated from Auburn and the University of Tennessee.

From 1986-1997, Charles and Carol served as church planters with MTW in Mexico City, where they led a ministry to reach students and adults, forming a new church, which was eventually handed over to Mexican leaders.

In 1998 Charles accepted a call to become the missions pastor at Christ Presbyterian Church in Nashville. While there, he led the church to expand its cross-cultural outreach both locally and overseas.

In 2003 Charles and Carol sensed God leading them back to the mission field, this time to plant churches in Madrid, Spain. Though Spain is known as "hard soil" for the gospel, they are optimistic because recent signs indicate that the younger generations are more open to the gospel. They hope to see many people won to Christ and new churches started.
