KARL AND DEBBIE DORTZBACH #011720

Karl and Debbie have made their home in Africa since 1973, serving through church planting, leadership training, and the development of educational materials and ministry programs for the church. Karl is on the faculty of the Nairobi Evangelical Graduate School of Theology in the Department of Continuing Education and Research. Karl has helped the seminary create the Institute for the Study of African Realities, which now has an African director, fully funded through the services of the institute. Currently Karl focuses on the development of training materials and training in peacemaking and conflict resolution, working most often with Peacemaker Ministries.

Since 1997 Debbie has worked to assist churches in the creation of HIV/AIDS programs in countries across Africa and Asia. The African programs now have an African filling the role of coordinator, so Debbie focuses more of her time in serving the churches in Asia. Presently she serves as the global HIV/AIDS coordinator for World Relief, the relief and development arm of the National Association of Evangelicals.

Because of Debbie's shifting focus on Asia and Karl's more wide-spread training and material development, they now live with a base in Nairobi and in Baltimore, alternating every three to four months.

Debbie and Karl have three adult children.
