Steven & Brooke Edging #12161

After pursuing ministry opportunities in foreign contexts for several years, Steven and Brooke Edging felt the call from God to serve Him overseas long term. They began to pursue this calling in earnest when Steven was attending Covenant Theological Seminary and they both became involved in a multi-cultural church. During a trip to Uganda and Ethiopia, the Edgings fell in love with Africa, and later felt led specifically to Kampala, Uganda.

The church in Africa is growing rapidly, but pastor training and ministries to meet the needs of the people there are not. Needs are mounting as an estimated 2.5 million Ugandan children are orphans, many due to HIV/AIDS, with that number expected to grow exponentially as the HIV/AIDS epidemic spreads. The Edgings plan to work alongside the Presbyterian Church of Uganda to proclaim the gospel and to explore and develop mercy ministry opportunities in Kampala. Steven plans to use his Bible training and Brooke her educational training to serve and love the people of Uganda, and most importantly bring glory to God.
