DON AND SUE GAHAGEN

ASST. DIRECTOR, HINTERLAND MINISTRIES

Don and Sue grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. Both felt called to missions, and after completing college and seminary they went to Peru with South America Mission. For 19 years God used them to establish aviation ministries in Peru and Bolivia with SAM, and later in the Caribbean area with Missions Aviation Fellowship. They were some of the earliest missionaries to serve under a cooperative agreement.

At this point God led them to accept a call as missions pastor at Coral Ridge Presbyterian, and in 1987 they were called by MTW to the position of Latin America director. In 1994 Africa and the Middle East were added to Don's area of oversight.

In a new chapter of their lives, Don has assumed the position of assistant director for MTW Hinterland Ministries, an outreach to the millions of Quechua Indians in Ecuador,

Peru, and Bolivia. Future plans call for similar church-planting ministries among tribal peoples in other countries. This role allows them more "hands-on" ministry, serving as field consultants and trainers of missionaries and national workers. They also help with short-term teams. Don handles much of the stateside representation and administration for the Hinterland team as well as numerous overseas assignments.

Don and Sue have two sons, Craig and Tim.
