TIM AND THÉRÈSE GALAGE #12835

Tim, from Newburgh, N.Y., came to faith in Christ his freshman year at Boston College. Thérèse grew up in York, Pa. and attended the University of Delaware, also coming to faith her freshman year. After meeting in Boston, they were married in 1982 and moved to the Chicago area where Tim attended Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. Upon receiving his M.Div, Tim served as a minister of Christian education in a local church. Sensing God's leading to be more active in evangelism, Tim returned to the business world where he has been employed as a commercial banker for over 20 years.

Through multiple exposures to the vast training needs of leaders in third-world churches, Tim and Thérèse developed a burden to equip national leadership. Tim pursued further training at Covenant Seminary to prepare him for this task, receiving a master of theology in 2007. Tim will teach and mentor leaders at various theological institutions in the greater Cape Town area of South Africa. Thérèse will draw upon decades of experience leading Bible studies and discipling women in the local church to mentor women and be involved in various aspects of ministry.

Tim and Thérèse have two grown daughters, Stephanie and Becky.
