ISAAC & KELLEY GEE #12859

As an undergrad studying English rhetoric and composition, Isaac felt called to missions during his involvement in college ministry. He came to know the grace of God through Reformed University Fellowship (RUF), and recently completed a two-year internship with RUF at Georgia Tech. Throughout his internship, Isaac used his gifts of leading music, teaching Bible studies, and relational evangelism.

In college, Kelley studied film and did not know Christ as her personal savior until her senior year. She read Mere Christianity, through which the promise of the gospel became real to her. Kelley served on a short-term mission trip to Berlin in 2007, during which she felt called to serve the German people.

The Gees were married in 2009, and together they are pursuing their call to God's kingdom work in Berlin, Germany. Captivated by the city's amazing beauty, and heavy-hearted for its brokenness, they bring their ministry experience and creative gifts to a church-planting team on the east side of Berlin to foster relationships, build community among young adults, and ultimately share the hope of the gospel of Christ.
