MIRIAM GRADY #012730 CHURCH PLANTING AND STUDENT MINISTRY

Miriam grew up in Florida in a strong Christian home and was heavily involved in the life of the church. God called her to missions when she was 16 through the testimony of missionaries visiting her church. For many years that call was placed to the side. When Miriam was a junior at Covenant College, she spent a semester studying in the Czech Republic. After graduation and several years of teaching middle school, she again felt God's call to missions. She went to Trnava, Slovakia under MTW's two-year program to help the team set up and run a teaching English ministry, a student ministry center and a church plant. After a few years, Miriam returned to Slovakia for another two-year term.

Miriam is now serving as a long-term missionary in Trnava, Slovakia. She currently manages the student ministry center, teaches community English classes, leads Bible studies for women and high school girls, and oversees summer English and Christian Camps.
