ED AND EMILY HARTMAN #13256

Born in Romania, Ed immigrated to the U.S. with his family in 1966. After he served as senior pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Kosciusko, Mississippi for almost 10 years, the Lord called Ed and his family back to Romania, where they have been since 2005.

In 1996, the Lord took Ed's wife, the former Amy Hogan, home following a yearlong battle with cancer. He then provided loving care for the four Hartman children, as Emily Potts, a member of FPC Kosciusko, became their nanny. In 1997, He graciously brought Ed and Emily together in marriage.

With Ed as team leader, the Romania team's vision is to equip pastors toward establishing a Reformed and covenantal church-planting movement which, by God's grace, will bring personal, cultural, and institutional reformation in Romania. Along with the International Presbyterian Church, they are working to launch a Romanian Presbytery led by national church planters. Their ministry includes leadership development; translation and publication of Reformed and covenantal books; conferences; and evangelism and discipleship through small groups, ESL, university ministry, and family ministry.

As the Hartmans have seen God's mercy and renewing grace in their family, they long to see the beauty of the gospel bringing new life to the people of Romania.
