MATT AND SARAH HAYNES #13346

Matt and Sarah were high school sweethearts and married in 1995. After completing undergraduate degrees at Columbia International University they served for two years in Botswana where Matt worked as a mission pilot. As they met believers throughout southern Africa, God impressed upon the Haynes the need for training and discipleship in the African church.

After returning to the U.S., Matt worked in the airline industry and ministered as an elder in the local church for six years. Sarah served the church using her gifts in administration and teaching. It was through their work in the local church that God once again led them to pursue vocational ministry. Covenant Theological Seminary was their next step in preparation, and Matt graduated with an M.Div. in 2010.

Matt teaches at the Bible Institute of South Africa in Cape Town and in the surrounding townships. Sarah is active in discipleship and hospitality. Their goal is to work alongside national Christian leaders to help meet the great need for well-trained leadership in the African church.
