JUSTIN & CONNIE HEBERT #13373

Justin and Connie experienced Japan back in 2005 and were struck by the intense need for biblically-grounded churches to bring the gospel to the Japanese. Japan is one of the richest countries in the world, yet the Japanese people are spiritually impoverished. The suicide rate is higher in Japan than in any other industrialized country, and the rate among teens is three times higher than that of the U.S. Beneath a glittery, cutesy surface of Hello Kitty decor and vast shopping districts, there is a quiet desperation for the love of God in Christ Jesus.

Justin and Connie will join the Nagoya team, taking part in God's present work to preach the gospel and make disciples. Since an estimated 95 percent of the country has never heard the gospel, the need to bring the good news couldn't be more urgent. Please pray for transformation in Nagoya, and that Justin, Connie, and the whole Nagoya team will meet with success as they seek to introduce unbelievers to an awesome and amazing God.
