JIM AND CLAUDIA JUNG #13650

Jim grew up in Southern California, and worked for several years in the finance industry while ministering at church and university campuses. He later received his graduate degree from Westminster Seminary California and was ordained as a minister with the PCA. Claudia grew up in Sao Paulo, Brazil, and committed her life to Christ at a youth conference in Colorado. She is a teacher, and her gift and passion is ministering to children. Jim and Claudia met at church and married in 1998. In 2006, they were commissioned to Australia.

The Jungs are in the thick of urban church-planting and university ministry in Sydney, which in recent decades, has become an impressive global city with incredible diversity. It is also a "poster-city" for post-modernity—steeped in spiritual apathy, and a challenging place for ministry. But the Jungs believe the gospel lived out and proclaimed in grace is the best hope for Australia. They envision a healthy multicultural church-planting movement that will become a powerful resource for furthering missions in surrounding nations. The church plant is Harbour City Church, and the campus ministry, Student Outreach to the World, is newly-established in several major universities around Sydney.
