Lloyd & Eda Kim #13960

In 2004 Lloyd and Eda began their missions career with MTW in Manila, Philippines. Lloyd worked as the country director of a Southeast Asian nation in which he has helped facilitate the planting of several churches. In addition, Lloyd was able to teach and provide teaching resources for several different theological institutions as the director of the theological education for Asia-Pacific.

In 2007, the Kims moved to Cambodia to initiate a new church-planting work. Lloyd is continuing his regional responsibilities while also leading the field team in Cambodia. Eda works part-time as a physician at a Christian clinic in Phnom Penh, which treats those connected to their church-planting work. She also mentors medical students and homeschools their children.

Lloyd received his M.Div. from Westminster Seminary in California, and his Ph.D. from Fuller Theological Seminary. Eda received her B.S. from the University of California, Berkeley, and her M.D. from the University of California, San Diego, where she also did her family practice residency.
