ROBERT AND KIM KING #13907

Robert grew up in Congo, Africa, where his parents were Presbyterian missionaries, and he became a Christian as a child. He graduated from King College in 1981 with a degree in economics and business administration. After working for the Boy Scouts of America for several years, Robert accepted God's call to pursue missions work overseas. He received his aviation training at Moody Aviation and graduated in 1990.

Kim was born and raised in Elizabethton, Tenn. While in junior high she became a Christian and became interested in missions. She graduated from East Tennessee State University with a degree in elementary education and taught in Tennessee and Florida. Robert and Kim were married in 1990.

Robert and Kim have a burden for the many people who do not have God's Word in their heart language. Since 1994 they have been in Papua New Guinea serving with Wycliffe Bible Translators in a cooperative agreement with MTW. Robert is an aircraft maintenance engineer, maintaining eight aircraft. He is also extensively involved with training national mechanics. Kim uses her training in education at the international school.
