BRENT KOOI #14009 TEACHING ENGLISH & COLLEGE MINISTRIES

Originally from Inwood, Iowa, Brent Kooi was raised in a Christian family and in the local Christian Reformed church. He graduated from Dordt College and later earned a master's degree in college student affairs from Azusa Pacific University. He ministered on various Christian college campuses including nine years at Belhaven College in Jackson, MS working in the area of residence life and as dean of student life.

Brent is a member of Redeemer Church in Jackson, where he has been active in the diaconate, gospel choir, and as the webmaster. His calling to missions in Japan became clear during gospel choir missions trips in 2007 and 2008.

Despite Japan's overall wealth and high standard of living, it has the highest rate of depression and suicide among industrialized nations. With Christians comprising only 0.5 percent of the population, Japan's greatest need is the gospel. The Presbyterian Church of Japan is a small but growing community of believers with a deep love for the Lord and their countrymen. Brent has been called to bring the good news through the churches' English and college ministries. These ministries are not only popular, but also provide opportunities for Bible study and for building long-term relationships with the people of Japan.
