ANDREW AND ANNE LAMB #14300 MTW REGIONAL DIRECTOR FOR MEXICO/BRAZIL

Andrew grew up in Lakeland, Fla., where he knew from his early years he was called into missions. He attended Columbia International and RTS and graduated with degrees in missions and theology respectively. Anne grew up in Miami and became interested in missions at James Madison University. She received an M.S. in dietetics from Florida International.

The Lambs spent their first two terms with MTW in Mexico helping to develop partnerships, which resulted in over 40 new works. They then spent seven years working with MTW partnerships worldwide.

Currently, Andrew serves Mexico and Brazil as regional director. His ministry involves facilitating church planting, seminaries, schools, street child ministries, and orphanages. Andrew works closely with national leaders, missionary leaders, church planters, and PCA churches, to ensure that they are moving together toward planting healthy, self-supporting, mercy-minded churches in both countries.

The Lambs' vision for Brazil and Mexico builds off of MTW's vision, but additionally includes a strong focus on the development of national leaders and national missionaries who seek to develop church planting in their own countries, and also seek to lead and serve in the unreached areas of the world.
