DANIEL AND ESTHER LEE #014368
CHURCH PLANTING

Esther and Daniel came from different backgrounds. Esther grew up in a Christian family that immigrated to the U.S. from S. Korea. Daniel came from a non-Christian home in S. Korea. They both met in California and went to Trinity Seminary together in Illinois. They've been married for 9 years and have two children, Elizabeth and Jonathan. Daniel is working as a missions pastor and ministering to young couples at Inland Korean Church. God placed Japan on Daniel's heart 11 years ago.

God has been faithfully preparing them in the last 9 years of ministry for the mission field. Since their union, they've had opportunities to minister to various age groups of young people in different churches. Also, as a missions pastor at Inland Church, Daniel learned what God is doing around the world.

Daniel and Esther will be joining a church planting team in Chiba, Japan. Japan is well known for its slow growth of churches. Because young people are more open and receptive to the gospel, their vision is to raise up new generations of committed Christians and leaders. They hope to reach many young generations to impact Japan.
