JOHN & KATHY LESONDAK #14310

The Lesondaks' missionary calling began in 1980 when God called them to serve in the Seychelles Islands. Initially John was asked to use his gifts in ceramics while teaching Bible studies in the evenings. God graciously used John and Kathy to help plant a church, which grew out of their fellowship with national believers.

Over the next 30 years God allowed them to raise six children while serving Him in various countries including Kenya, the Czech Republic, and beginning in 1997, Slovakia.

John and Kathy are currently serving in the second-largest city in Slovakia: Košice. Specifically, they aim to help launch a church-planting movement. Their ministry involves working with the poor; as well as working alongside a local denomination to help plant churches that are grounded on the Word of God.
