MARC AND ALINE MAILLOUX #014711

Marc was raised in a French-Canadian, Roman Catholic milieu in Rhode Island. He got involved with oriental mysticism at Georgetown University in 1972. He was saved in India in April 1973, indirectly through the ministries of Os Guinness and Francis Schaeffer (at L'Abri Fellowship) and an Indian Christian.

Aline is a French native, a descendant of the Huguenots. Raised in a nominally protestant family, she came to saving faith at the age of 18. She studied at the Reformed Seminary of Aix-en-Provence where she met Marc and from which both graduated. Marc and Aline have three adult children.

Marc and Aline worked in France with university students from 1983-86 near Lyon with Campus Crusade. From 1987-1997 they worked planting churches in the Marseille area.

In 1998, they began a ministry amongst the thousands of spiritually receptive French-speaking Haitians of S. Florida, teaching in a Haitian Bible school, and doing daily evangelistic radio broadcasts on a Quebecois radio program.

Under the auspices of "Ministries in Action," they have developed a reformed theological training program for the eager believers of the French West Indian islands of St. Martin, Martinique and Guadeloupe where they travel regularly.
