MEDICAL MISSIONS

Doreen is an emergency medicine physician based in northern Virginia. She is blessed to have a family legacy of faith—her maternal grandfather became a Christian through the Presbyterian evangelistic sweep of southern China in the early 1900's and subsequently helped establish Christian education in China and Hong Kong.

Doreen is Chinese by heritage, American by birth and culture, international citizen by call. Extensive travel and a variety of experiences, including personally challenging trials, have helped mold her for God's ministry and His call for her with Mission to the World. Board certified in Internal Medicine, Emergency Medicine, and Tropical Medicine, and with prior involvement on numerous missions trips, she will serve with MTW's Medical Division as a team leader and participant on multiple short-term medical missions teams all over the world. Only God could have orchestrated this niche for her in international ministry.

She asks for your vital prayer support, financial support, and possible participation on one of her teams.

"No mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love Him." I Corinthians 2:9.
