DON AND FRAN MCNEILL #014825

THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION

Don and Fran were reared in Mississippi and met at MS State where both received bachelor's degrees. Don later earned a master of Christian education in 1979 and an M.Div. in 1994 from RTS, Jackson. Married for 30 years, they have four grown children.

Uganda Bible Institute was born from the vision of Director Amos Magezi, a Ugandan pastor, who describes the church in Africa as "a mile wide and an inch deep." Insufficiently trained pastors, most of them leading three or more congregations, serve a growing church, and this has resulted in congregations which are ill-equipped to understand and apply the Scriptures adequately. UBI's goal is to train Christian leaders for expositional preaching and teaching in cities, towns and the remotest villages of Uganda. The ultimate aim is to help African Christians develop a world-view in which the implications of the gospel penetrate to all areas of life that God might be glorified.

Don focuses his efforts on theological education while Fran works as administrative secretary for UBI. Both enjoy personal interaction with the students and have also been involved in one-on-one discipleship, marriage and family studies, and a study with young professionals involved in school ministry.
