Gary & Carol Nantt #15400

Gary was born in Lodi, Calif. He graduated from Sacramento State College and attended Reformed Seminary in Jackson, Miss., where he earned an M.Div. He recently received a Th.D. from Golden State School of Theology. Carol was born in Miami, Fla., and attended several colleges. They met at Sacramento State and have two children: Aimee and Bradley.

Both Gary and Carol felt God calling them overseas and joined MTW in 1977 for service in South Korea. When that ministry was completed, they worked with MTW's Border Evangelism and Mercy Ministries (BEAMM) on the U.S./Mexico border.

Recently, the Nantts moved from Tijuana, Baja California Norte, Mexico, to Florence, Ala., to help Carol's mother. While Carol takes care of that task, Gary is working with the MTW director of Sub-Saharan Africa to build up networks of PCA churches, individuals, and other ministries in the recruiting and funding of more team members for the region. This region of Africa is larger than the U.S., but does not have sufficient numbers of missionaries to reach the many nations and tribes there. Gary's work will involve much itineration so please pray for safety and for a great response from various contacts in the U.S.
