TIM AND LYN NEWBRANDER #15404

Tim is a graduate of Wheaton College (B.A.), University of Illinois (M.S.W.), and Westminster Seminary (M.Div.) and is ordained in the PCA. Lyn sensed God's call to missions while at Columbia International University and served as a missionary to Japan before marrying Tim in 1982. She has her M.A. from Calvin College.

From 1989 to 1995, Tim and Lyn served as church planters in Amsterdam, the Netherlands. In 1996, they moved to Berlin to partner with a local church in establishing church plants. Their vision for neighborhood transformation led them to set up a local family center, which is serving the community in both word and deed. As team leader, Tim is giving over direct leadership of the church plant to the veteran German pastor and former missionary Michael Strub, whom God has called to pastor the young church. Tim and Lyn are focusing their expertise and experience on mentoring both nationals and missionaries, as well as on evangelism and discipleship.

The Newbranders have three children, all of whom have been very active in the ministry.

Timothy (8/2/87, not pictured), David (5/18/90), and Rebecca (3/24/93).
