WES AND HOPE PARSONS #16048

Wes and Hope met in college, were married in 2004, and began pursuing a call to international missions. Wes obtained his M.Div. from Covenant Theological Seminary in 2009, while Hope taught music. Music and youth have been a major part of the Parsons' ministry. They look forward to seeing God use these gifts on the field.

In 2009, the Lord called the Parsons to Bogota, Colombia, where they work with the youth, through local church plants, to build relationships that will open doors to sharing the gospel. Wes assists with the church-planting efforts in Bogota through theological and pastoral training, equipping national leaders to grow and lead the Church. Hope works in a newly-formed music school, training leaders from local church plants how to read and lead music. She also helps nationals to develop indigenous worship music for the local church.

Please pray for the Parsons as they minister in Colombia. Pray that the gospel will heal a country marked with suffering, that it will transform the hearts of a nation, and that Christ will be glorified through the labors of the gospel.
