JIM AND MARY ALICE PATTERSON #16005

Jim and Mary Alice Patterson have been members of Mission to the World and Wycliffe Bible Translators since 1975. They have served in Colombia, South America, Wycliffe's training facility known as Jungle Aviation and Radio Service (JAARS) in Waxhaw, N.C., and the Nasuli Translation Center in southern Philippines. In each location they served in assignments supporting and assisting Bible translation. Jim has primarily served in the area of center maintenance while Mary Alice has served in bookkeeping roles. Jim has supervised employees, helped close various Wycliffe centers, and aided in natural disaster recovery. They desire to continue serving the Lord and Bible translation by filling various support roles as long as the Lord allows. Jim and Mary Alice are primarily based in Waxhaw, N.C. at the JAARS center, with occasional assignments to other areas of the world for special needs.

Jim and Mary Alice's home churches are First Presbyterian Church in Jackson, Miss. and First Presbyterian Church in Water Valley, Miss. They have two adult daughters in the Charlotte, N.C. area. Betsy works in a Christian child development center and is married to Jeff Sheets, and Jeannie is a nurse in downtown Charlotte.
