MIKE AND ERIN PETTENGILL #16129

Mike was born in Germany and both he and Erin were raised in California. Before college Erin lived in Germany for three years while serving in the military. They met at California State University, Sacramento, where Mike received his degree in political science and Erin in nursing. Mike worked 12 years in the California Senate and Erin was a pediatric registered nurse for 10 years.

After marrying, Mike and Erin began serving at Soaring Oaks Presbyterian Church (PCA). Mike was a ruling elder, director of high school youth, Sunday school teacher, and evangelism instructor while Erin served as director of children's ministries. She also taught adult courses, Sunday school, and served on both the women in the church ministry team and the missions committee.

Mike and Erin have a burden to serve Christ cross-culturally through missions. Between them they have taken 11 international missions trips throughout Central America, South America, Africa, Asia, and the U.S. They are both certified in MTW's disaster response ministry.

Since June of 2008, Mike and Erin have been serving as long-term missionaries in La Ceiba, Honduras. Mike is the team leader for a team that focuses on discipleship, church planting, and medical/mercy ministries.
