STEPHANIE PIKE #16069

Growing up in a missions-minded family, Stephanie learned about God's work overseas through missions conferences, biographies, and hosting missionaries. As a teenager, she initiated missions projects in her church and dreamed of serving on the foreign field. Before going to France in 2001, she worked as an editor in Chicago and served on staff at her church in Orlando.

Today, in a country where the Protestant faith was nearly exterminated by centuries of persecution, Stephanie is serving in Marseille, France's second-largest city. Working alongside nationals, the MTW team has helped establish three area churches. Stephanie is assisting the French pastor with the fourth, a church plant, as it grows toward maturity and eventual independence. Her creativity and gifts in teaching, music, drama, English, and graphic design help with a wide variety of evangelistic outreaches such as children's and youth ministry, music outreaches, and English clubs and classes. Her goal is to make contacts for evangelism and disciple the "lost generation": children and youth, and their families.

Join Stephanie in praying that God will bring hope and healing to the spiritually hungry people of France, where only 1 percent are evangelical Christians and millions have never heard the gospel.
