CLAY AND DARLENE QUARTERMAN #16400

The Quartermans have served with MTW for 30 years. They first served 14 years on MTW's Portugal Team, where Clay planted churches, taught in Bible college, and helped organize a school of missions and a branch of Evangelism Explosion. He is one of the founders of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church of Portugal.

In 1993, the Quartermans transitioned to Ukraine. The team started a denomination of 11 Presbyterian churches and founded the Evangelical Reformed Seminary of Ukraine, of which Clay is president.

Clay earned two degrees at RTS in Jackson: M.Div. (1977) and D.Min. (1986). He holds a Ph.D. in theology from the University of Wales (2005) and is an ordained PCA pastor.

Clay and Darlene were reared in Christian homes and both came to Christ at a young age, with an early interest in missions. They are from First Presbyterian Church of Jackson, MS, and the West Hopewell church in VA. They met in chemistry class at Belhaven College, and their first date was to a missions conference. They married in December of 1973.
